

Dear all,

Thank you to all who joined us for our second Virtual Winter Conference last weekend!

Virtual Adler Café:

The next Virtual Adler Café will be held on Sunday, February 2nd, 2025, at 1pm Chicago, 2 pm New York, 7 pm UK, 8 pm Germany, 9pm Israel, depending on your time zone. Jay Colker will talk about “Dealing with resistance – where it occurs and how to address it”. Jay will present some observations on resistance clinically and in one or more of the life-tasks: work, friendship, and intimate relationships. After a presentation of the topic we will use break-out sessions to discuss personal experiences with resistance and how we can apply the learnings to cope with it.

We will profit from the various professional and cultural backgrounds of all of you. Open to everyone interested. We will speak English but we are aware that there are a lot of non-native English speakers and we will try to help as much as possible. We will also try to offer other language groups for the break-out sessions. Please try to get in the room on time. Unfortunately late-comers cannot be admitted while break-out sessions take place. In that case you might need to wait up to 20 minutes in the waiting room.
